Hideaway Beach

An aerial view of a tropical resort. In the foreground, a sandy beach is lined with numerous lounge chairs and red-and-white striped umbrellas. People are seen relaxing on the beach and swimming in the clear turquoise ocean. A large, winding swimming pool with a waterfall edge runs along the beach. In the center of the pool area, there is a large, circular bar with a thatched roof. The background is filled with a dense forest of palm trees under a clear blue sky. The title 'Hideaway Beach' is written in a large, white, cursive font across the top of the image.
